Our Watch and Pen Offers.

Never before did the Monitor institute any subscription plan that is so popular as the premium offer now open to everyone. But we don't wonder that everyone is getting busy and securing one of those handsome watches or pens. Today (Wednesday) before going to press we have already sent four watches, two of them being ladies' gold watches, and four fountain pens. Two of these pens went to girls who had already earned watches. Boys, don't let the girls beat you out in getting premiums. It is easily done. One girl got one of those gold watches and told us it was nearly all done over the 'phone. She simply called her friends and neighbors and asked them if they would take the Monitor to help her get a watch. She simply had to collect them up then. We have ordered pens and watches again so to be sure and have enough for all.

We call the attention of the ladies' in this issue to another premium offered them. A lady's handbag. This can be seen at the office. It is worth a little effort to secure.

Now boys and girls, about that watch deal, if you start right out next Saturday morning and try, you certainly can get Monitor subscribers enough to get one of these fine watches. Try it and see. Everyone is glad to give you their subscription to help.

Mill Destroyed by Fire.

Fire broke out in F. R. Whipple's sawmill in Sutton Thursday night about midnight. When discovered the inside of the mill was all on fire, which rapidly spread to the lumber piles. From 125,000 to 150,000 feet of lumber was destroyed besides the mill and machinery. There was no insurance.

Episcopal Mission Notes.

The aurora borealis display last evening between seven and eight o'clock has rarely if ever been so brilliant and changing as seen last evening. Lights streaked occasionally to the zenith and changed with great rapidity all over the northern skies. Some of our oldest inhabitants state they never before witnessed so magnificent a display of the northern lights.

One of the plate glass windows in the Pierce drug store was broken by the runaway horse of E. G. Freeman Monday morning. The horse ran from the Winslow place, and instead of keeping the street in front of the Pierce and Barrows block, took to the sidewalk and the wagon smashed the window, just missed the other glass, and hit one of the pillars supporting the upper piazza of the Batchelder block, moving that some four inches. Here the horse cleared itself from the buggy. Fortunately no one was injured.

Announcement.

To the Republican Voters of Orleans County:

Believing with Brother Black that if an office is worth having it is worth asking for, I, too, make known my candidacy and desire for the office of State's Attorney for Orleans County. If elected my best ability will be given to a just, impartial administration of the office.

I am,

Sincerely,

Aaron H. Grout.

Negro Kills Two.

Private Matthew Carlisle, A Troop, 10th Cavalry, yesterday afternoon shot and killed Private Andrew C. Fox of the same troop, Clara Washington, a negro woman at Blanford's restaurant a quarter of a mile from the post at Essex Junction and mortally wounded Beatrice Stewart, another negro woman. He took refuge in an upper room at the restaurant, and when the guard was summoned from the post he was wounded by Lieut. Blaine and surrendered. He is at the post hospital with the Stewart woman who, the surgeons say, cannot live. Carlisle was under arrest and confined to barrack limits for failure to report for duty. While in confinement he had been making complaints against Private Fox under whom he had been obliged to do fatigue duty while under arrest. He claimed Fox was responsible for his arrest and that he had imposed unreasonable duties on him since his arrest.

G. H. Davis of the Davis company left last night for Boston where the E. M. F. and Flanders 20 dealers of New England meet by invitation of the Studabaker Corporation, manufacturers of the automobiles mentioned, and will be taken by special train to Detroit, Mich., where two days will be spent visiting the factories of the Studabaker corporation and in conference with department heads. The entire expense of the trip is borne by the company. C. L. M. Rurbee of Newport accompanies Mr. Davis.

The Greenfield (Mass.) Gazette contains the following item that will be of interest to the Barton friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pearson: "The young people of the Second Congregational church will give a farewell social to Erwin A. Pearson of the Peerless Manufacturing Company's office, and Mrs. Pearson Tuesday evening at the chapel, to which all are cordially invited. Mr. Pearson has been an active and valued worker in the church during his five years' residence in town and both he and Mrs. Pearson will be greatly missed. They will leave for Concord, N. H., some day next week."

Mrs. Esther Owen, wife of Hiram Miles of Barnet, who died at her home there Sept. 17th, after only a four days' illness of pneumonia, was the oldest daughter in a family of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel and Sarah Barnard Owen of this place. She was educated at the schools here and belonged to one of the oldest families in town, her grandfathers on both sides being among the first settlers. She was 74 years old. Besides her husband she is survived by a son and daughter by a former marriage, Carl Perrin of Passumpsic and Helen, wife of George Hines of Tilton, N. H., also two granddaughters, three sisters and one brother. The St. Johnsbury Caledonian speaks in terms of highest praise of her life as a neighbor and friend and of her admirable home qualities.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY

A lecture course is to be given in Craftsbury this year but not under the management of the Academy students as in previous years. It was ascertained that the students did not wish to take up this work again. Hence this year the lecture course will be managed by a committee consisting of an equal number of representatives from each of the three villages in town. The representatives from Craftsbury are Mr. Leavitt, Mrs. Sawyer and Geo. Wheeler; from East Craftsbury, John Kendrick, Miss Martha Patterson and Aurelius Shields; from North Craftsbury, Rev. E. R. Gordon, A. B. Pike and Ed. Wheeler. Rev. E. R. Gordon has been elected chairman of the committee and Mrs. Sawyer is the treasurer. At a recent meeting the committee arranged a course consisting of two lectures and two entertainments. Heretofore, two numbers of the course have been given at North Craftsbury and one number at each of the other two villages. Desiring to be as fair as possible to each community, the committee decided to give the two numbers at Craftsbury this year instead of at North Craftsbury. The profits of the course will be kept in the treasury and used to secure a more valuable course of entertainments on the following year. The purpose of the course is not to make money either for private individuals or for any institution, but to furnish both entertainment and instruction to the people of Craftsbury. The members of the committee give their services free and assume financial risks without receiving any remuneration whatever. The cost of the lecture course this year is greater than that of recent courses and it is hoped that the lectures and entertainments will be of a high order. The dates of the numbers are Nov. 10, Nov. 20, Jan. 15 and Feb. 15.
